

Prof Ka Ho Mok's invited keynote speech at International Partnerships Forum

Professor Joshua Ka Ho Mok was invited as a keynote speaker of the International Partnerships Forum of Universitas 21 (U21) Network, which is the leading international network of research-intensive universities to promote inter-university collaboration and partnerships. The event was organized by University of Nottingham Ningbo campus from 18 -19 May, 2017. There are 19 partnering institutions joining the forum, from Australia, Egypt, Germany, Hong Kong, India, mainland China, Thailand and the UK. Around 80 participants joined the event. Prof Mok' s speech is "Partnering with the Best in the East: Challenges and Opportunities in collaboration with Universities in Greater China", which was well received.

Global and Regional Trends of HE
in Greater China Region

- The massification and privatization of HE
- The quest for world-class university status
- The increasing R&D investment
- The growing trend of international and transnational HE

